CYA discussion questions for the week of 11.1.26:

1. Looking back on the week, how are you really doing?

2. How has your walk with Jesus been lately?

3. Looking back at the panel conversation and last Tuesday, what was one thing that resonated with you?

4. Scripture Discussion
   Read Matthew 5:13–16 together.

5. Jesus calls us the salt of the earth and the light of the world. What do you think He means by those two descriptions? What might it look like to live that out in your everyday environments (school, work, friendships, social media, etc.)?

6. Read verse 16 again. Jesus says our good deeds should lead others to glorify our Father in heaven. What's the difference between using your influence to draw attention to yourself and using it to point people toward Jesus?

7. Where is God challenging you to be more intentional about being salt and light right now? Is there a particular relationship, environment, or opportunity where you know you could better represent Jesus?

8. How can you put this lesson into practice this upcoming week?

9. Share about someone who is influential in your life. Who are they? How did that happen? What have you learned from them?

10. How you can be influential in the lives your family, friends, co-workers or classmates this week and beyond?
